Mary, Protectress of freedom's song, at your feet we lay the service of our youth. We, the posterity of freedom's first dream, the children of liberty's land, pledge ourselves to you and beg you to grant us light and life as we seek to bring our America, heritage of human independence, to you — — the ultimate goal of our aspirations.

Mary Immaculate, Patroness of these United States, accept the dedication of mind and spirit which we make to you. Beloved embodiment of patriots' dreams, receive this humble measure of our love, this portion of the life we live for you, this annual called in your honor—the 1961 Madonna.

always sincerely
God bless you always

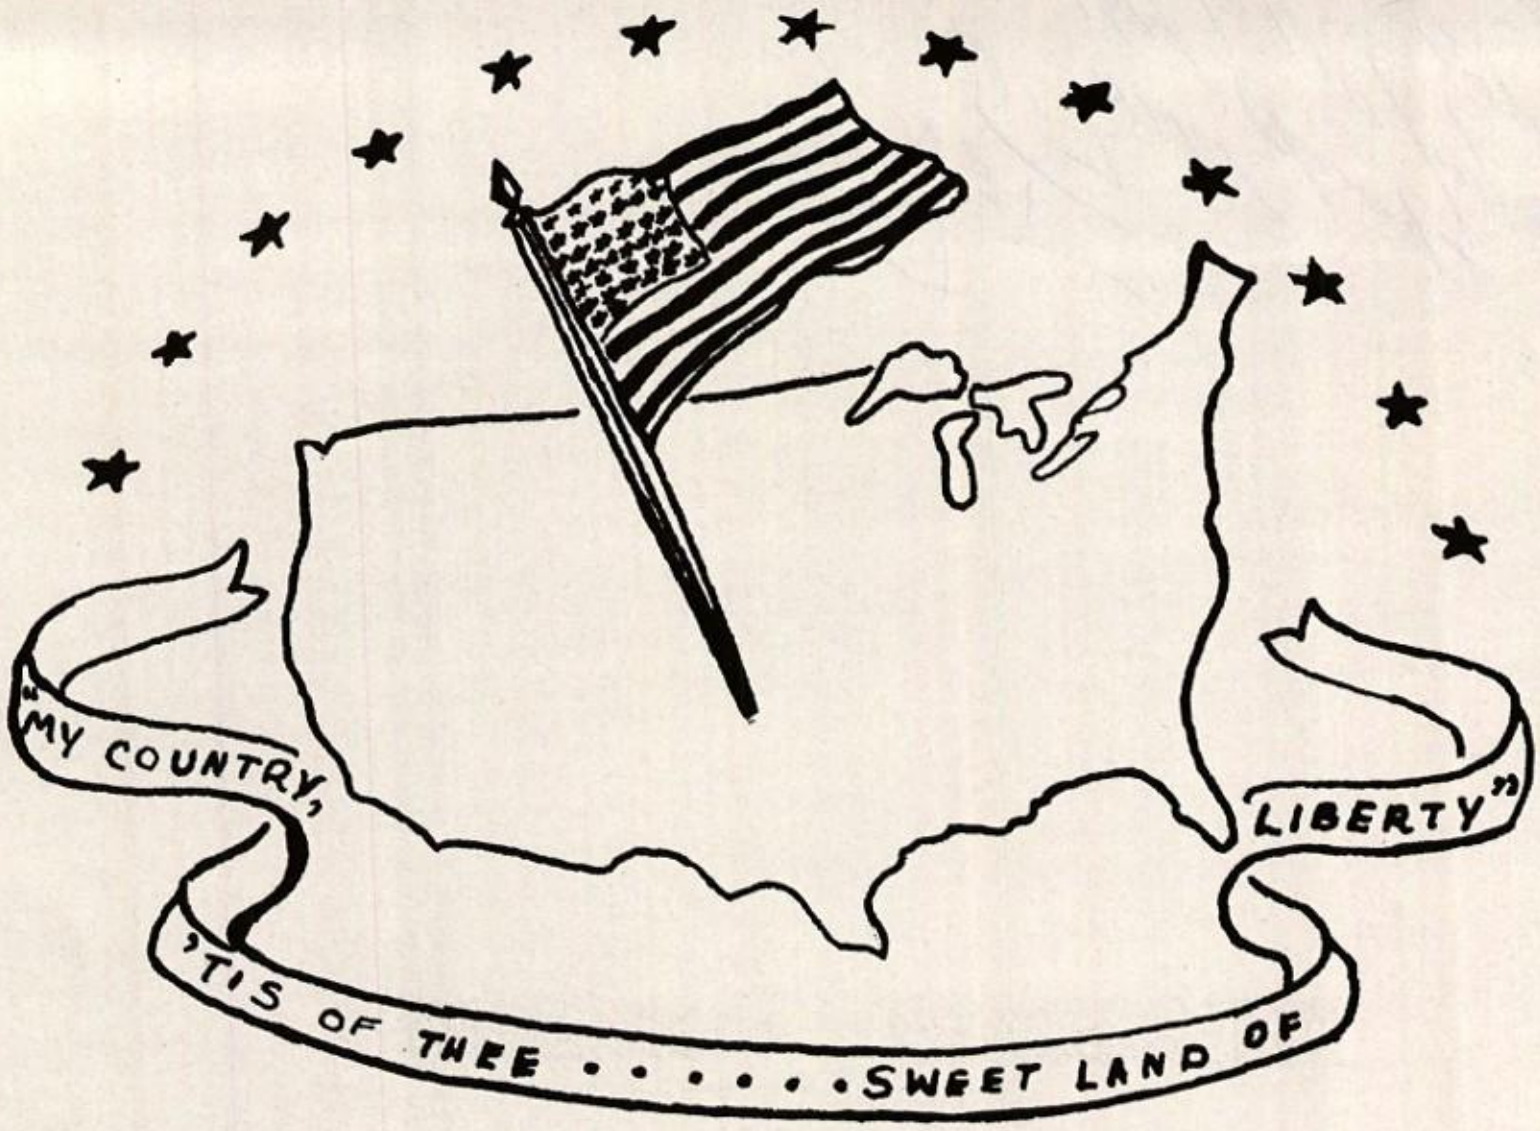
"We dare not forget that we are the heirs of that first revolution. Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans—born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a cold and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage—and unwilling to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which this nation has always been committed, and to which we are committed today."

President John F. Kennedy



For the past year democracy has been our byword. We have cherished it, we have lived it, and now, we have recorded it.

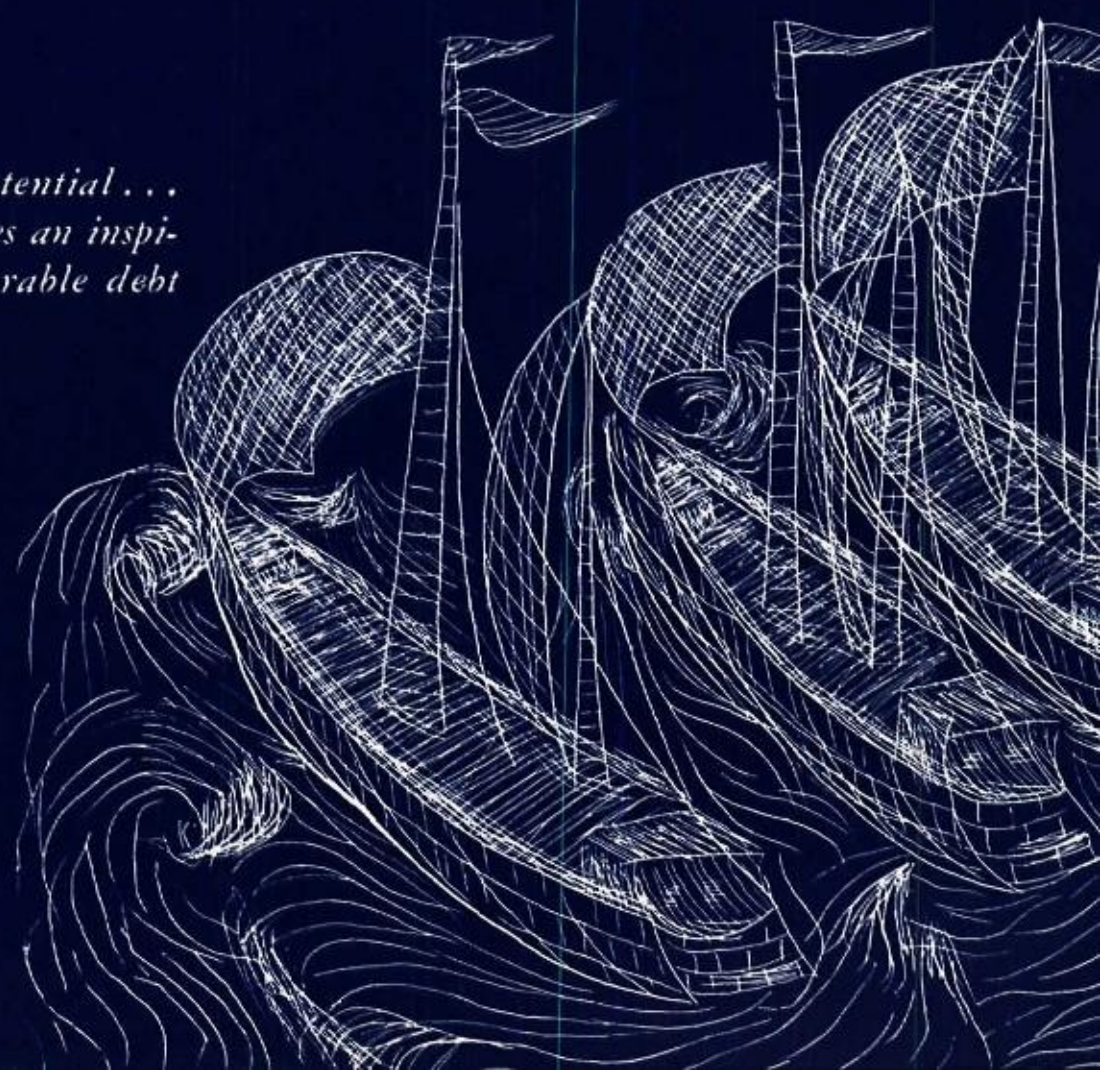
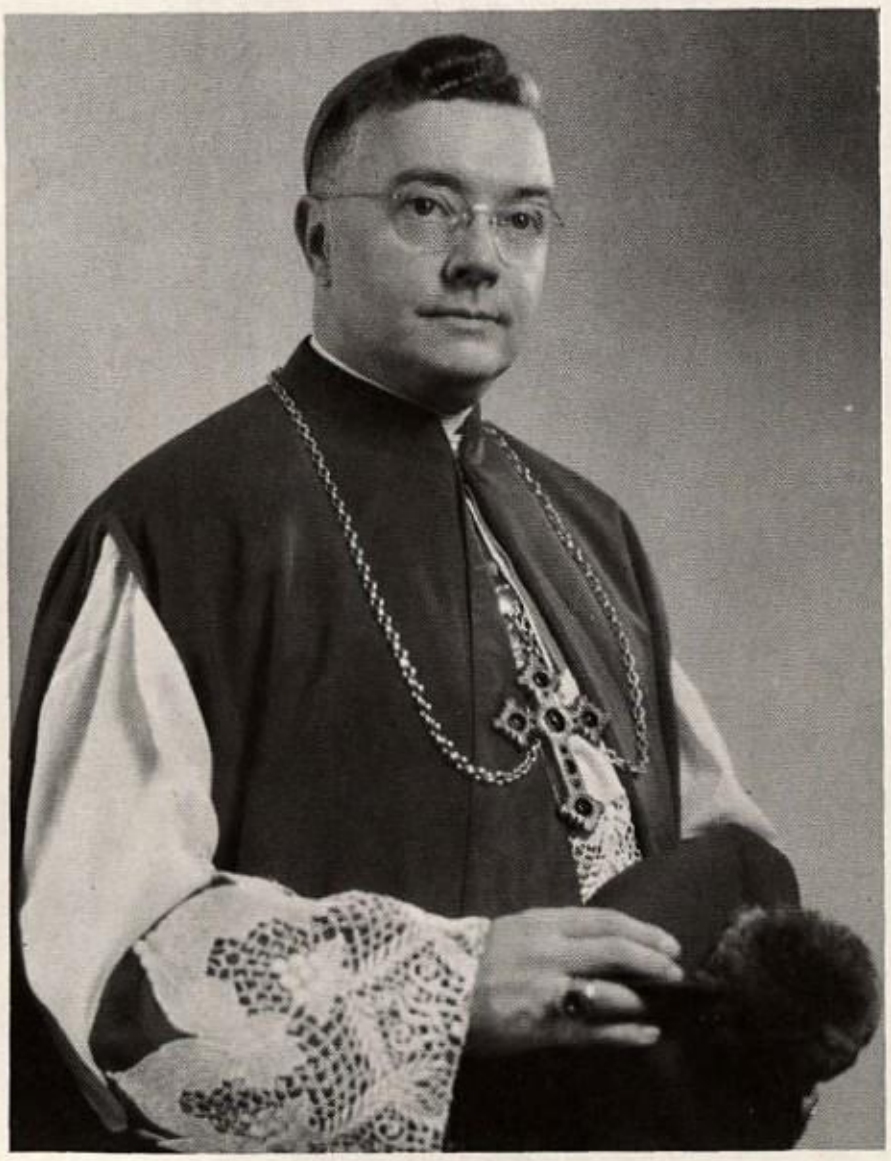
Administration

To our administrators . . . molders of youth's potential . . . architects of America's future . . . by their lives an inspiration to selflessness . . . we owe an incomparable debt of gratitude.



The Most Reverend Joseph A. Burke, D.D.
Bishop of Buffalo

His Excellency, Bishop Joseph A. Burke, D.D., our spiritual leader since 1952, has always had as his prime pastoral concern the welfare of his flock in the Diocese of Buffalo in Western New York. In keeping with this concern, one of his greatest desires is the furthering of Catholic education, for he is aware that today's students are tomorrow's leaders. For this reason, Madonna High School was founded. Bishop Burke has given his fatherly interest to each school entrusted to his care, and has worked zealously for its spiritual benefit. Our sincere gratitude and prayers for our beloved Bishop!



His Excellency, Bishop Leo R. Smith, D.D., a consecrated leader of the government of the Catholic Church, has worked intimately with the youth of our growing nation—guiding souls to God. He has striven to instill in them a steadfast dedication to God and country. His zealous devotion to the potential of American youth is exemplified in his establishment of the Catholic Youth Movement in the Diocese of Buffalo and in his advocation of the National Federation of Diocesan Catholic Youth Councils, a unified organization of young Catholics which he serves in his official capacity of Episcopal Moderator.

SISTER MARY ELOISE, Principal

Christ Himself is the life-spring of Catholic education; the faculty, the channels through which knowledge and love of Himself pour forth to enrich and invigorate the Christ-life of the Catholic student. The Sisters of Mercy have, for over a century, striven to convey Christ's powerful message of love as taught and practiced by their saintly foundress, Mother Mary Catherine McAuley. Our faculty, her devoted daughters, have endeavored to instill in us the spirit of Mercy, to form in us an ardent love of Our Saviour and a filial devotion to Mary, our model in Christian womanhood. It is to them that we, the Seniors of Madonna, nearing the end of our high school days, turn in love and gratitude.

Sister Mary Eloise advises Marsha Grose, Eirin Sheedy, and Carol Greaser on filing college applications.

Leaders of Tomorrow

"I do not choose to be a common man. It is my right to be uncommon, if I can. I seek opportunity, not security. I do not wish to be a kept citizen, humbled and dulled by having the State look after me. I want to take the calculated risk, to dream and to build, to fail and to succeed. I refuse to barter incentive for the dole. I prefer the challenges of life to the guaranteed existence; the thrill of fulfillment to the stale calm of Utopia. I will not trade freedom for beneficence, nor my dignity for a handout. It is my heritage to think and act for myself, enjoy the benefit of my creations, and to face the world boldly and say, this I have done. All this is what it means to be an American."

THOMAS JEFFERSON

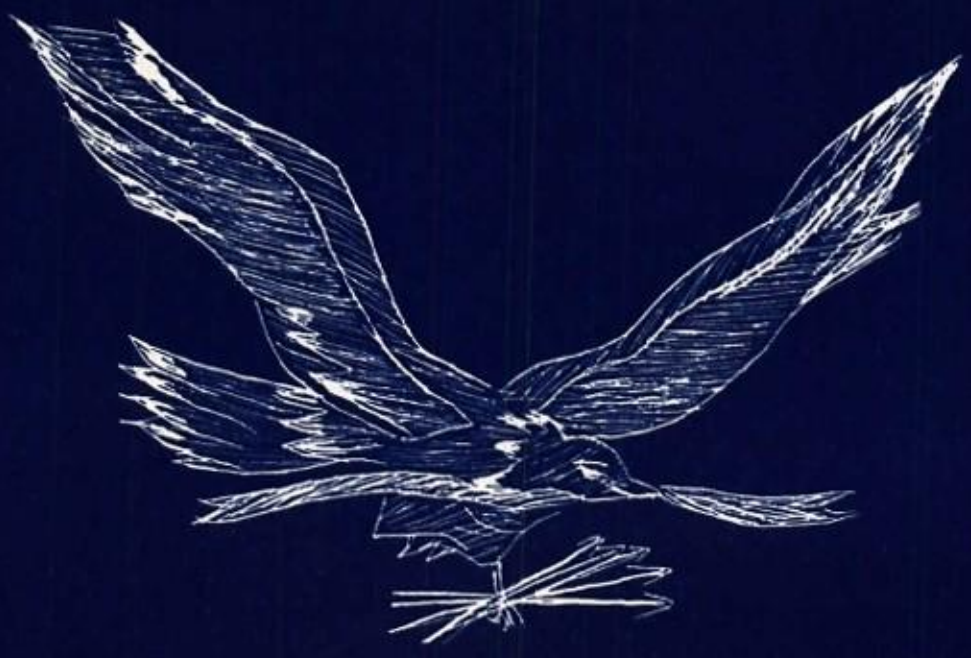
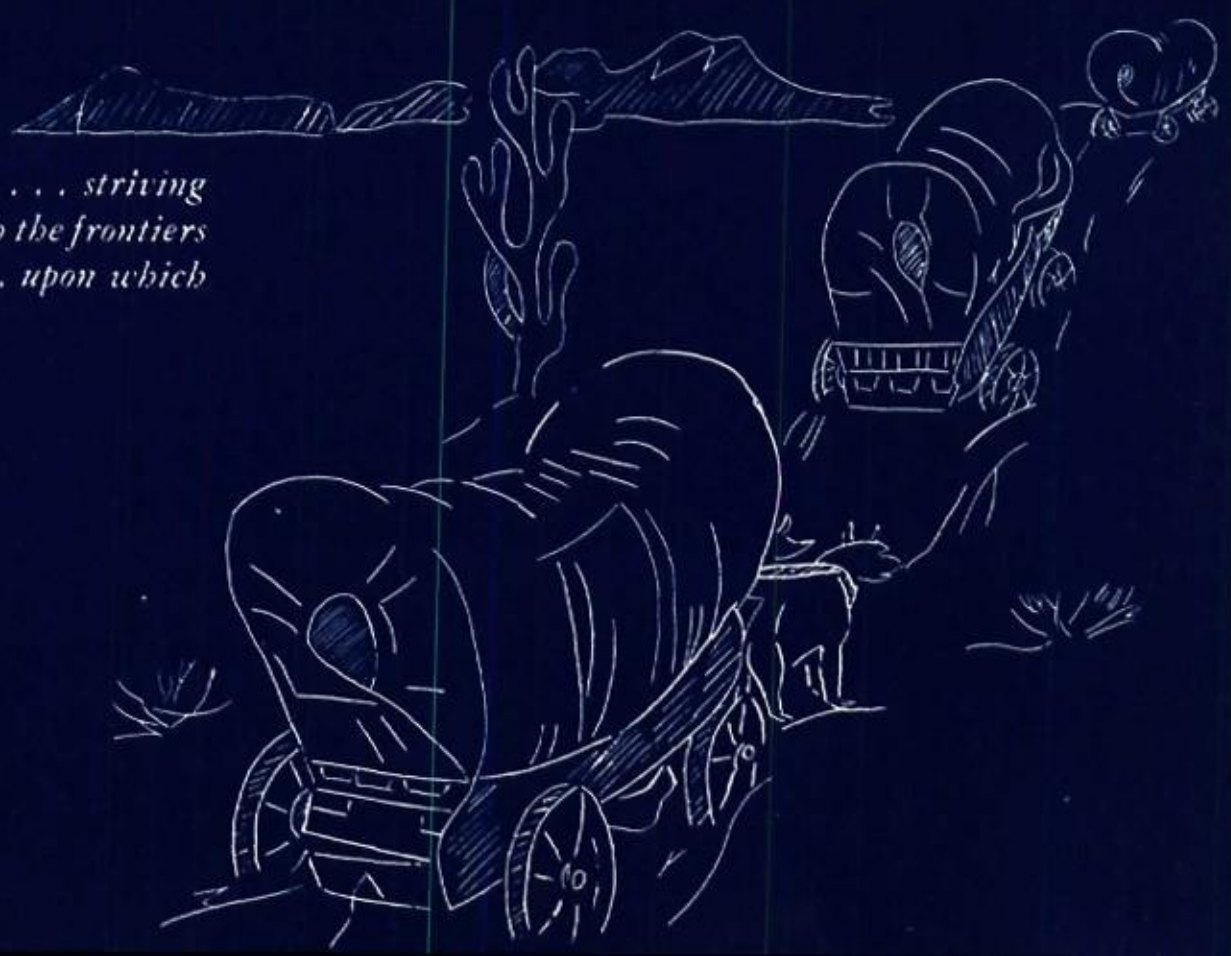
Karyn Perlman



Studies

Rallying to the challenge of things unknown . . . striving to merit our country's trust . . . we seek to reach the frontiers . . . to develop a foundation of knowledge . . . upon which to build our America.



The Very Reverend Monsignor John J. Carey instructs P. Gallagher and A. Bacon in leading the dialogue Mass.

The Blessed Trinity is studied by Freshmen P. DiJoseph, S. Canavan, P. Dawson, and M. J. Birchard with the aid of personally designed liturgical symbols.

". . . all men shall be free to profess, and by argument to maintain, their opinions in matters of religion, and that the same shall in no wise diminish, enlarge, or affect their civil capacities."

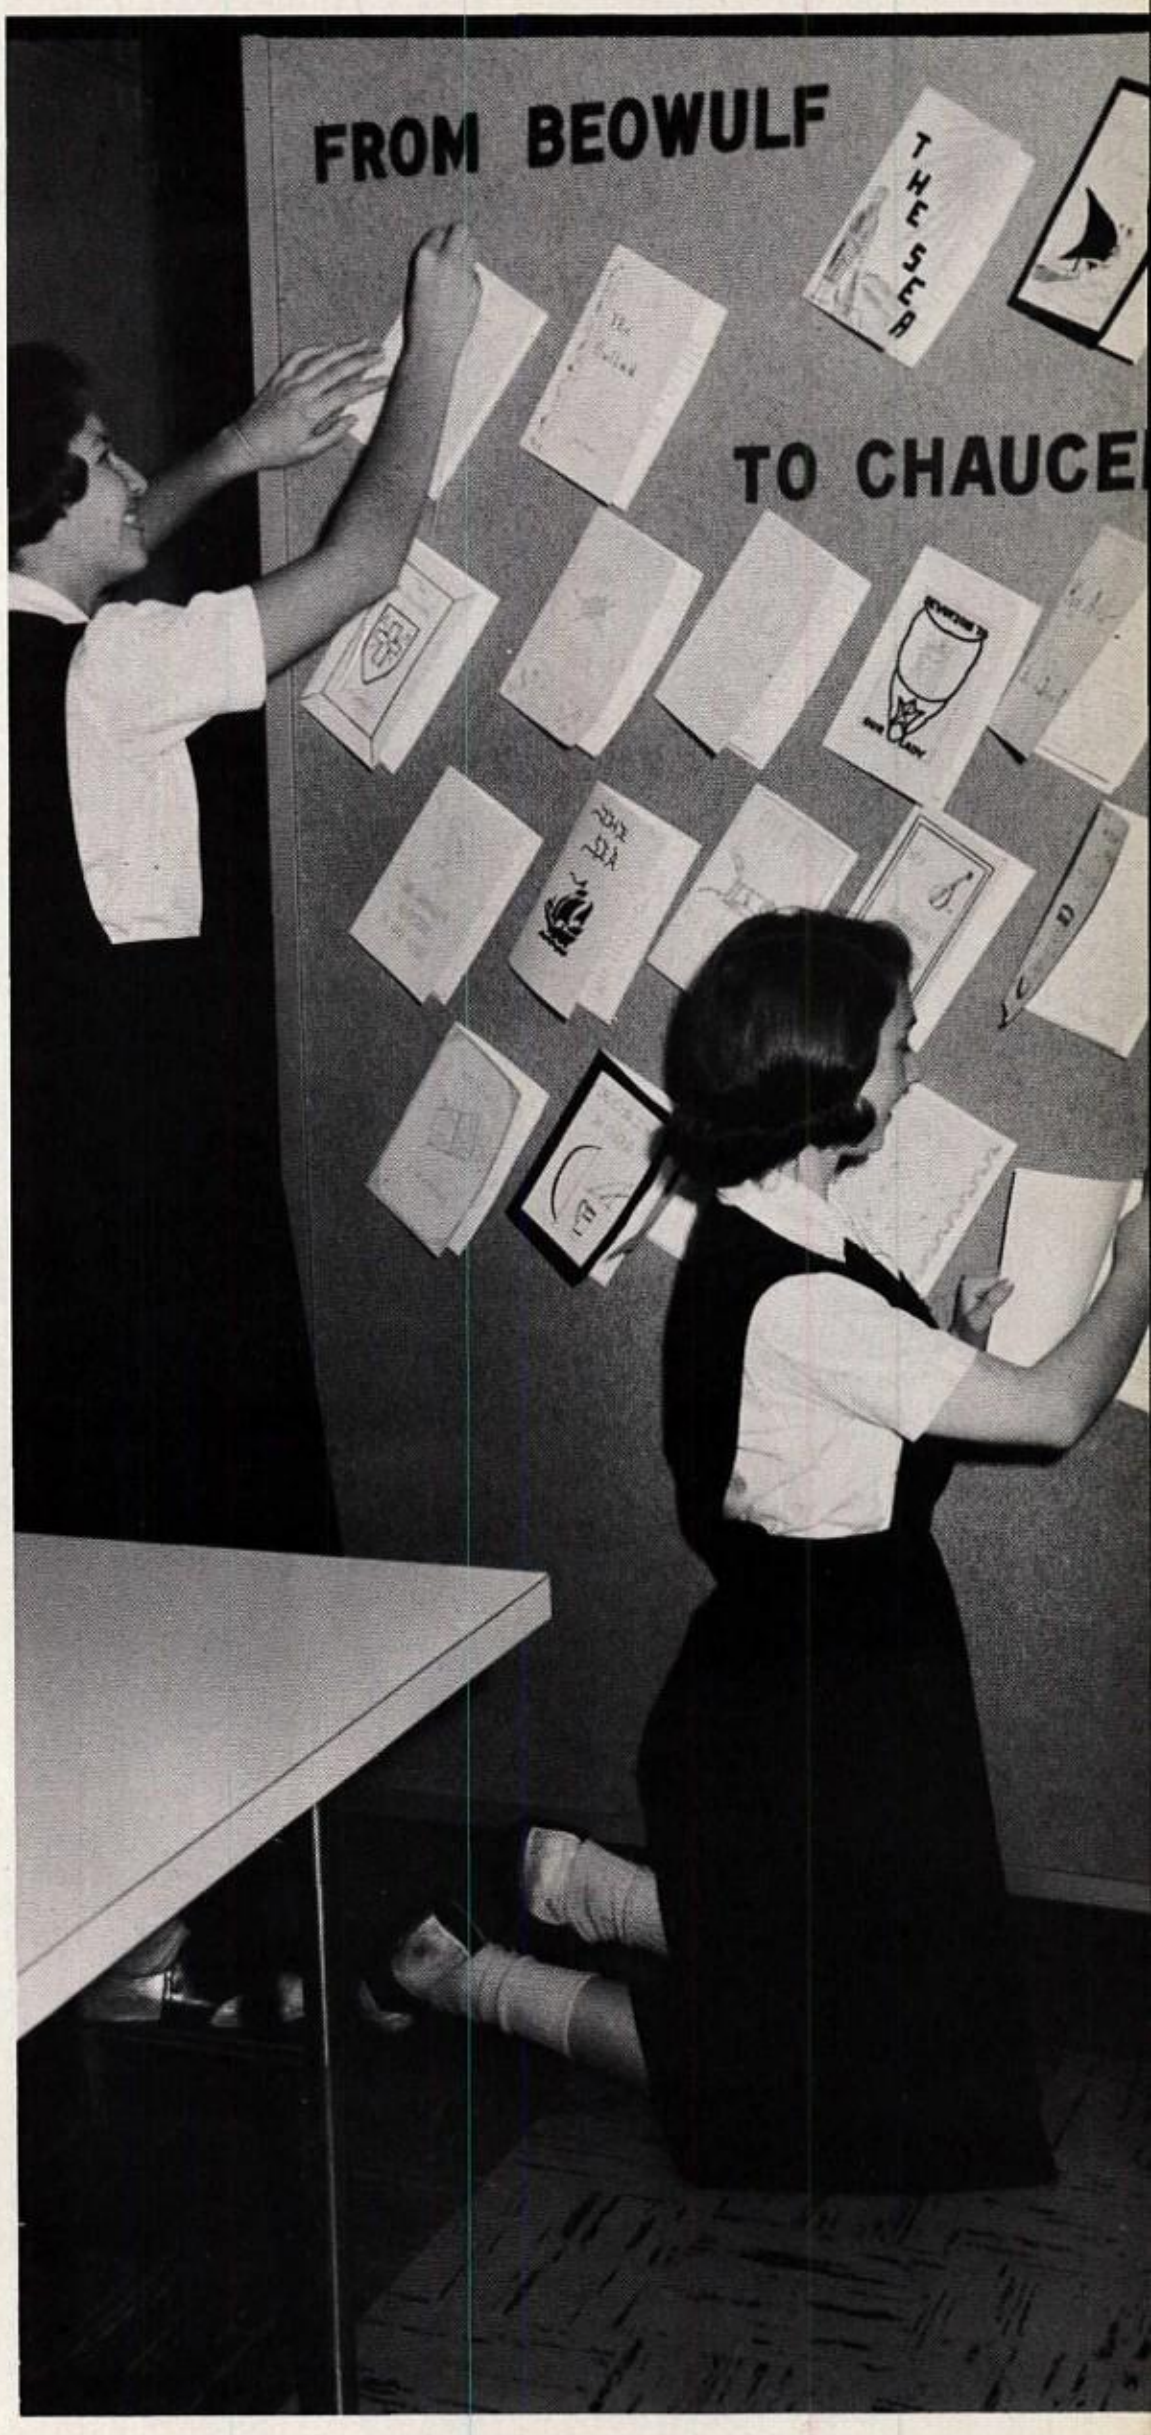
Religion

God's blessing is invoked and Mary's protection assured for the school year at the first Mass celebrated by the Right Reverend Monsignor Paschal J. Tronolone on the feast of the Holy Name of Mary.

J. Bergeron, S. Morgat, C. Schoepflin, and K. Wilson discover that periodicals are really helpful in mastering English III.

English

During the first quarter, seniors trace the origins of our language from Beowulf to Chaucer with research booklets. J. Jendraszek and A. Flater display their work in the library.



M. West, G. Urbaniak, J. Guzdek, L. Fechner, and M. Raidy agree that figures of speech are important in the life of a Latin IV student.

Latin

The strict discipline of Latin helps to develop a keen mind capable of understanding today's problems. Latin not only gives us a knowledge of old Roman customs, but it serves as the basis of our present-day romance languages. Latin opens the storehouse of vast ecclesiastical treasures, and is a blueprint in building a wide, colorful vocabulary. The practical Madonna student values her Latin as an introduction to the culture of the past.

N. Holinka and M. A. Hvozda have that "Well, I tried," look as Sister M. Teresa surveys their Latin translations.

French

To appreciate the American way of life, we must understand the traditions and manners of others nations. Through the study of French language and culture, we can become an influence for unity in our world.

J. Guzdek bravely takes the lead in recording her French voice while P. Gallagher and M. E. Gallagher await their turn.

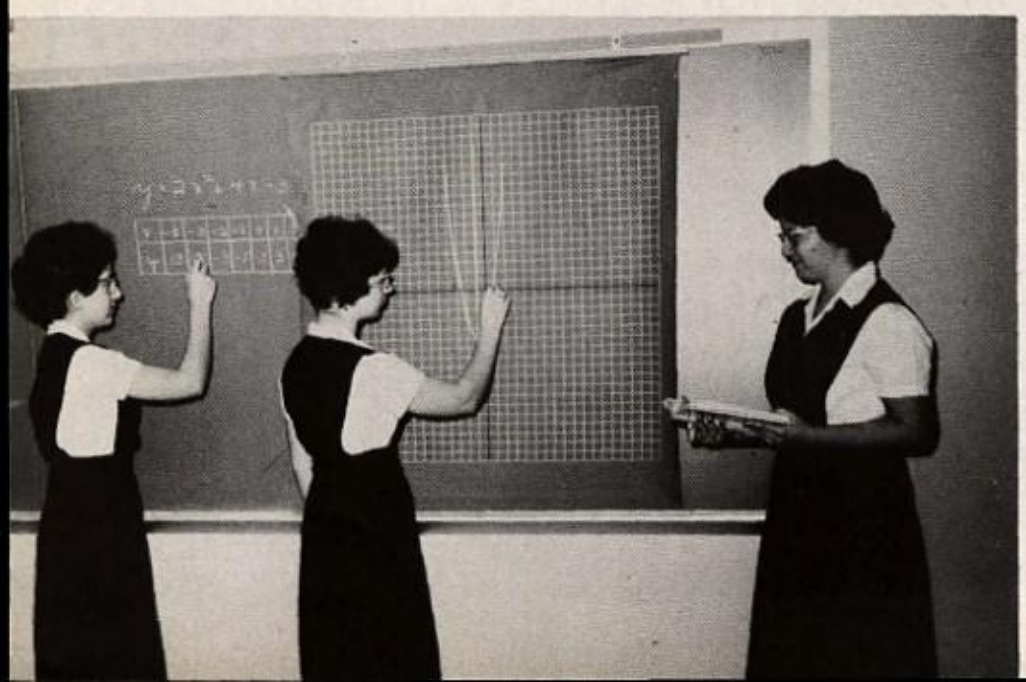
S. Broderick and A. Harvey seem sure that J. Gilligan knows where to locate Bordeaux on the French map.

Can you write this geometric theorem? M. Berry proves to C. Prozeller and P. Fitzgibbons that it's quite simple.

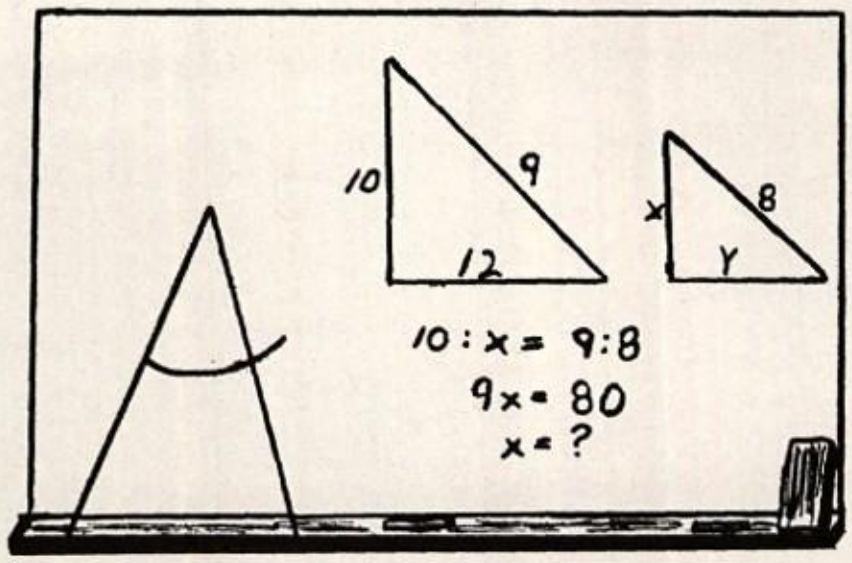
"I am nothing, but truth is everything. I know I am right because I know that liberty is right, for Christ teaches it and Christ is God."

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

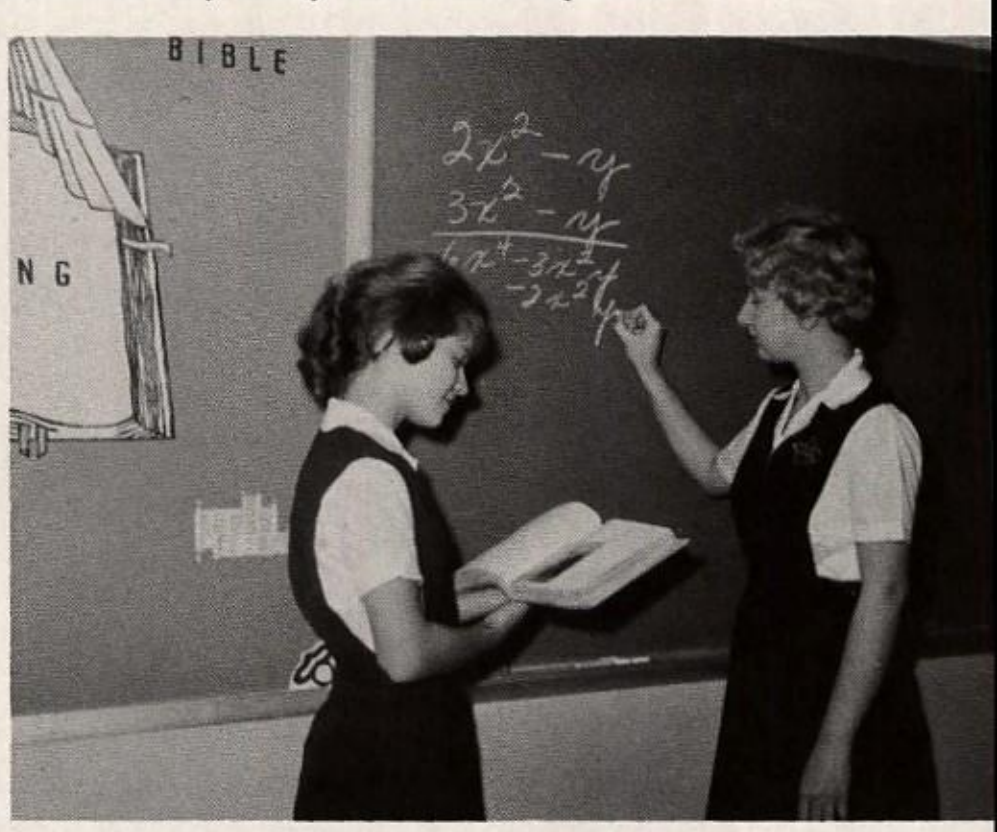
The mysteries of the parabola are demonstrated by N. Justiana and K. Young for onlooker B. Downs.



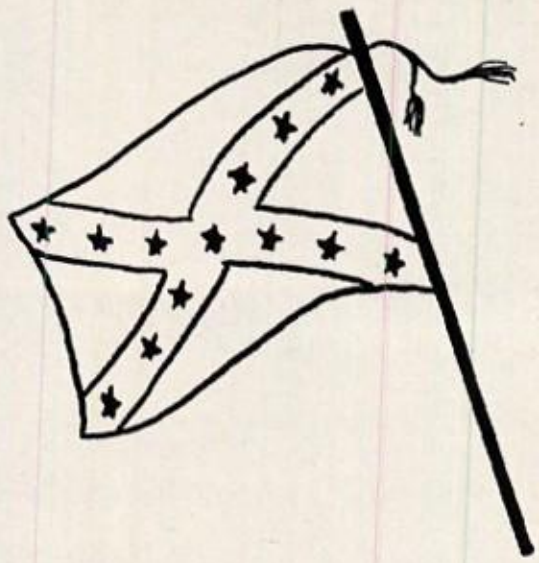
Math



E. Kozdranski and J. Kubik think that math isn't too terrible as they finally master those equations.

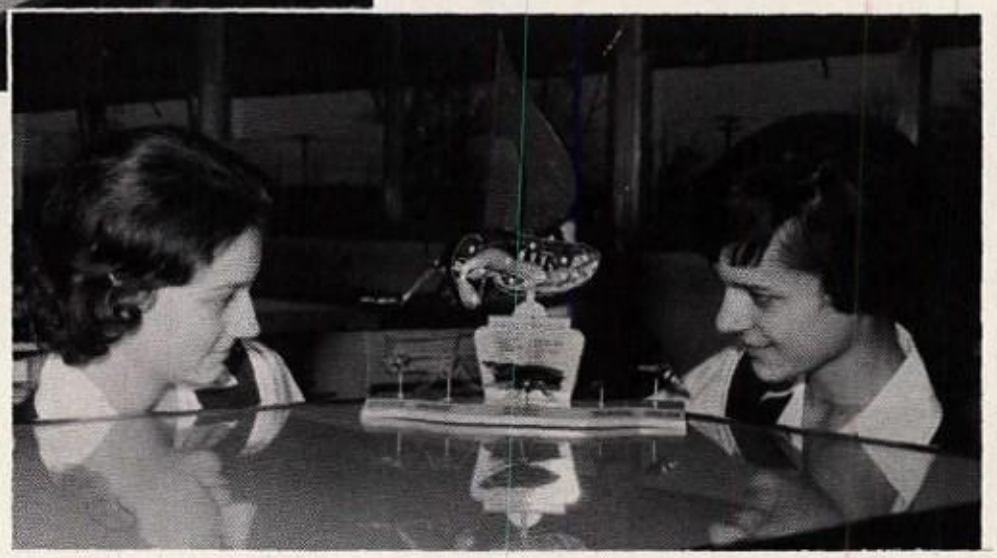


Mathematics and science give us a basic understanding of the laws that govern nature. Armed with this knowledge we can serve God and our fellowmen more effectively, and make better use of modern discoveries for our own improvement and our country's welfare.



Science

J. Davis, A. Carson, C. Certo, and J. Colosi are preparing an exhibit in general science for visitors at Open House.



The structure of the field cricket becomes a subject of amazement for C. Brennan and L. Galdys.

Serious seniors engage in a study of the properties of acids and bases, and their neutralizing effects on each other, as one of their absorbing projects in chemistry.

Social Studies

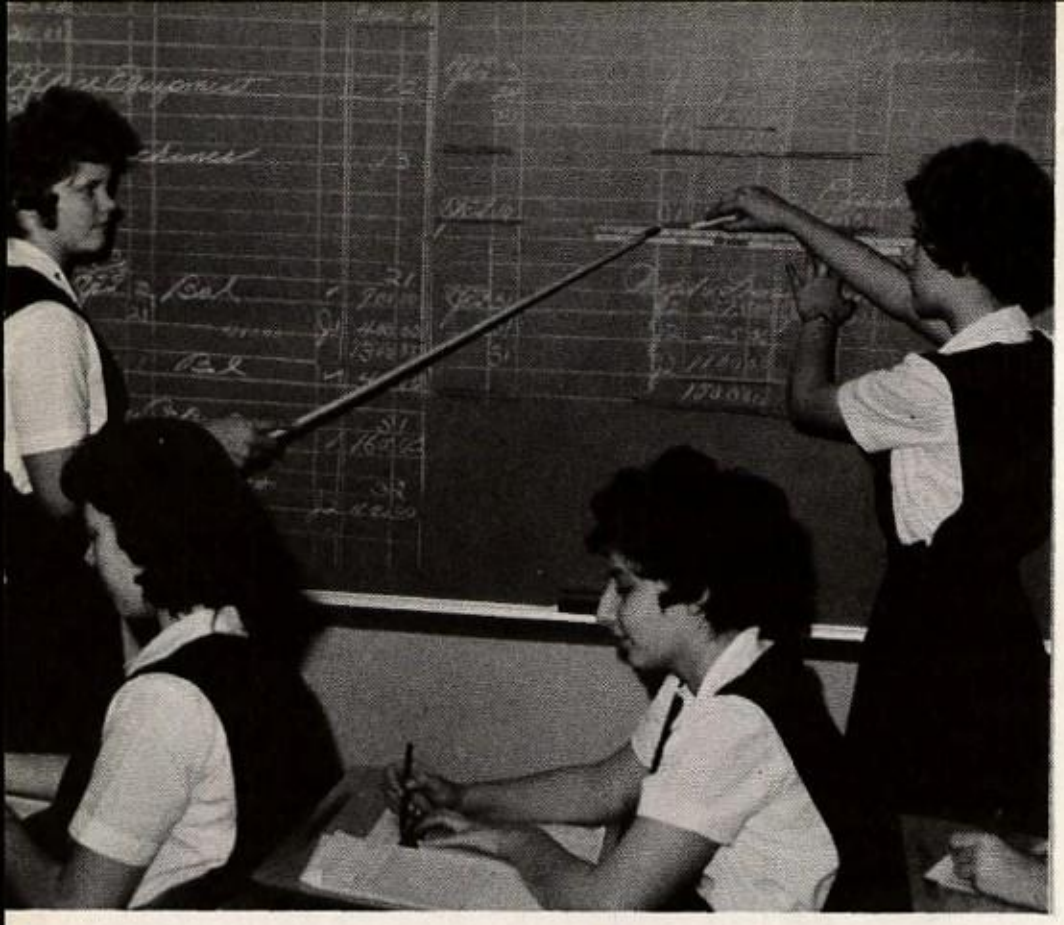
"Let us in this day look on our youth,
eager for a larger and clearer knowledge,
as forces for international understanding."

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

C. Hook, M. A. Fortunate. M. Flynn, E. Grabowski, and L. Graca inform their Citizenship Citizenship Education class on the political background of our vice-president.

Knights and castles make an attractive, informative display for World History posters.

What was the war strategy of World War I? It's simple, concludes Mr. Schmidt.



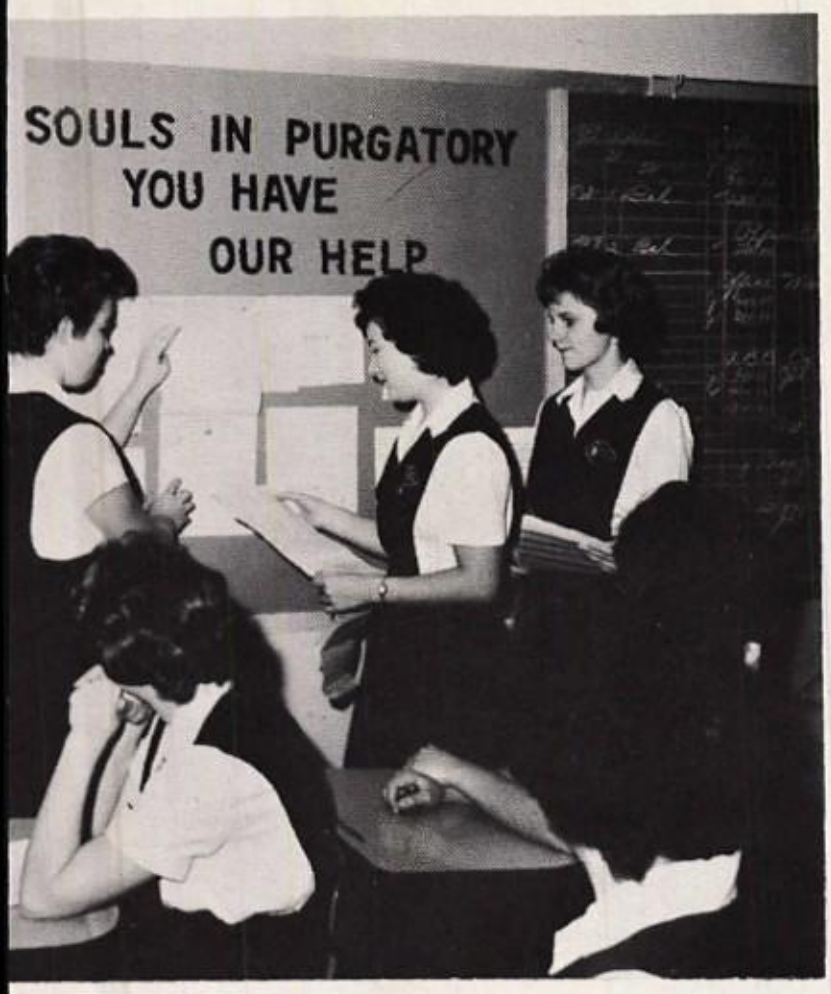
M. Cuddahee, R. Putnam, J. DiCamillo, and G. Beckett are demonstrating the correct way to close a ledger.

Business

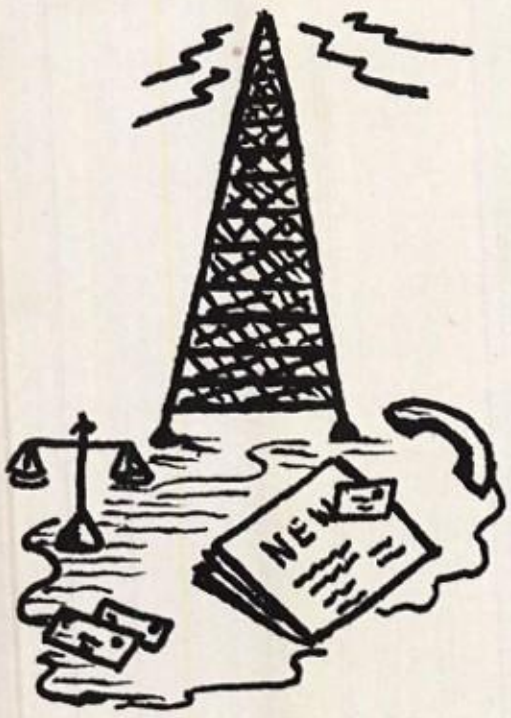
"Let us impart all the blessings we possess, or ask for ourselves, to the whole family of mankind."

GEORGE WASHINGTON

Mrs. DiFlorio seems to approve the work of her future secretaries.



Business law students, J. Bouvy, S. Barteck, and B. Bernadowicz, discuss the various terms of a conditional contract.

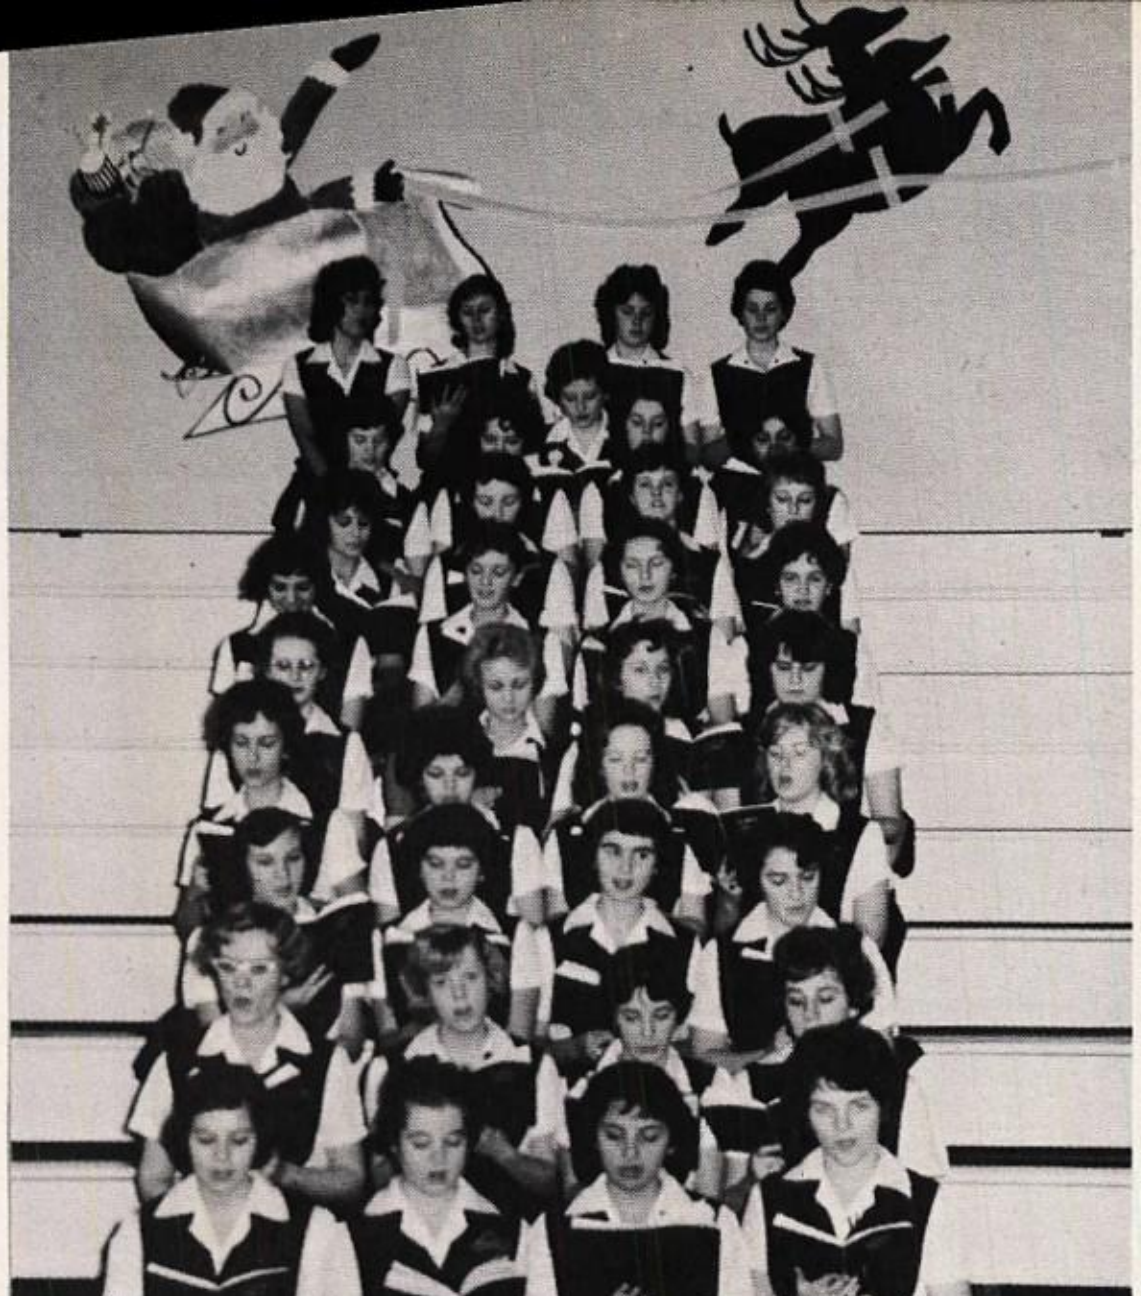


Mrs. Meyer explains the operation of MHS's new tabulator to J. Rossow.

"Keeping Christ in Christmas" is the purpose of this Art Class project. B. Sullivan, M. Mills and G. Viscomi are putting on the finishing touches.

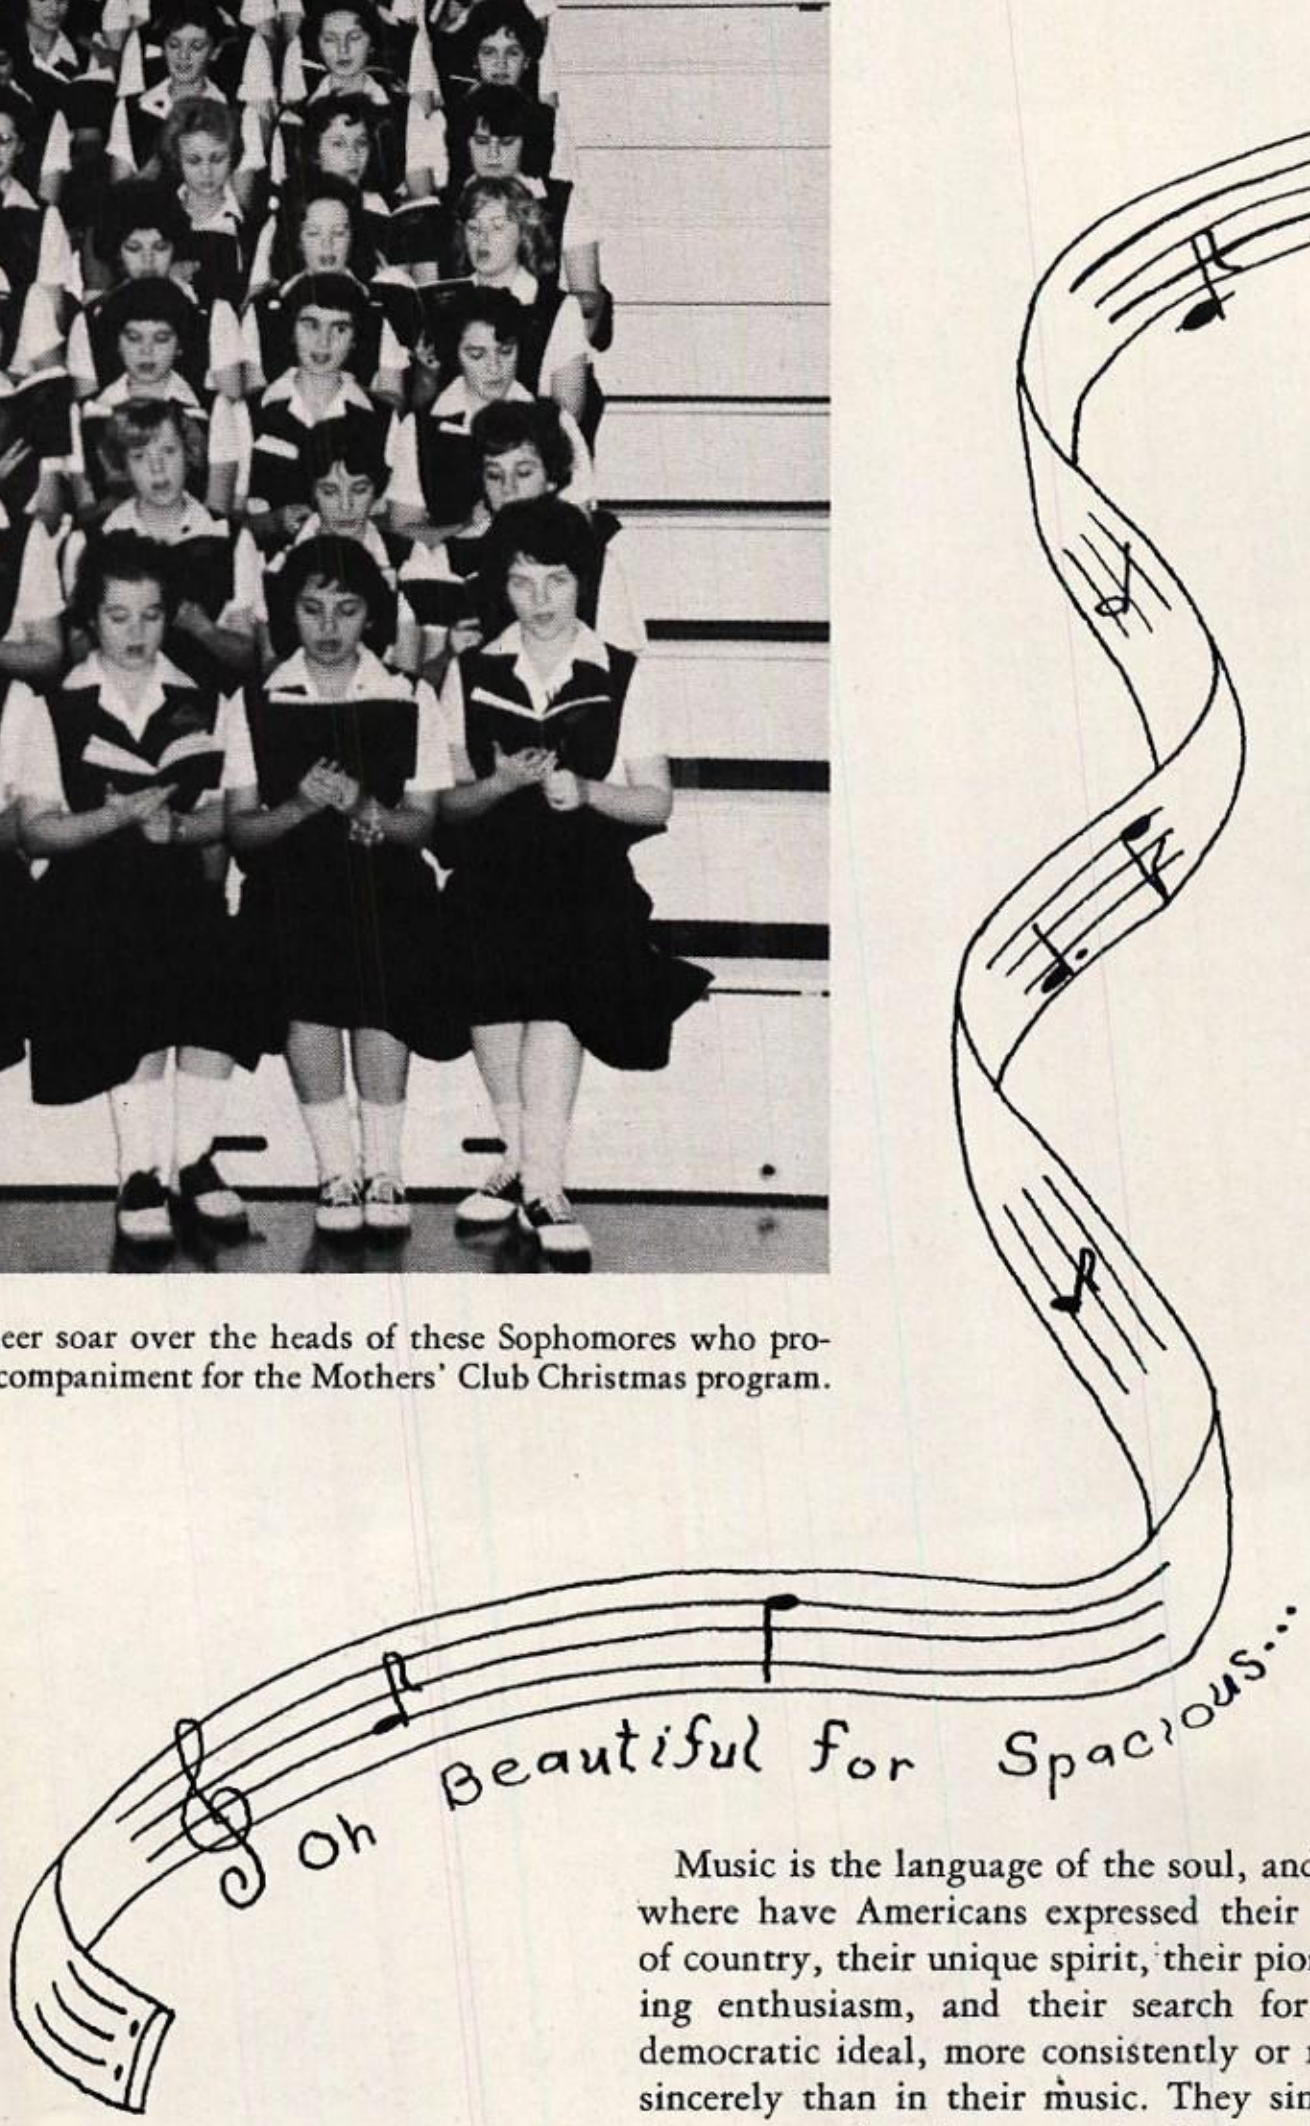
Art

C. Venuto, A. Cudahy, and M. L. Maher display their originality and artistic ability by fashioning their own Christmas cards.



Santa and his reindeer soar over the heads of these Sophomores who provided the Choral accompaniment for the Mothers' Club Christmas program.

Music



Music is the language of the soul, and nowhere have Americans expressed their love of country, their unique spirit, their pioneering enthusiasm, and their search for the democratic ideal, more consistently or more sincerely than in their music. They sing of America, and their song asks God to keep her free.

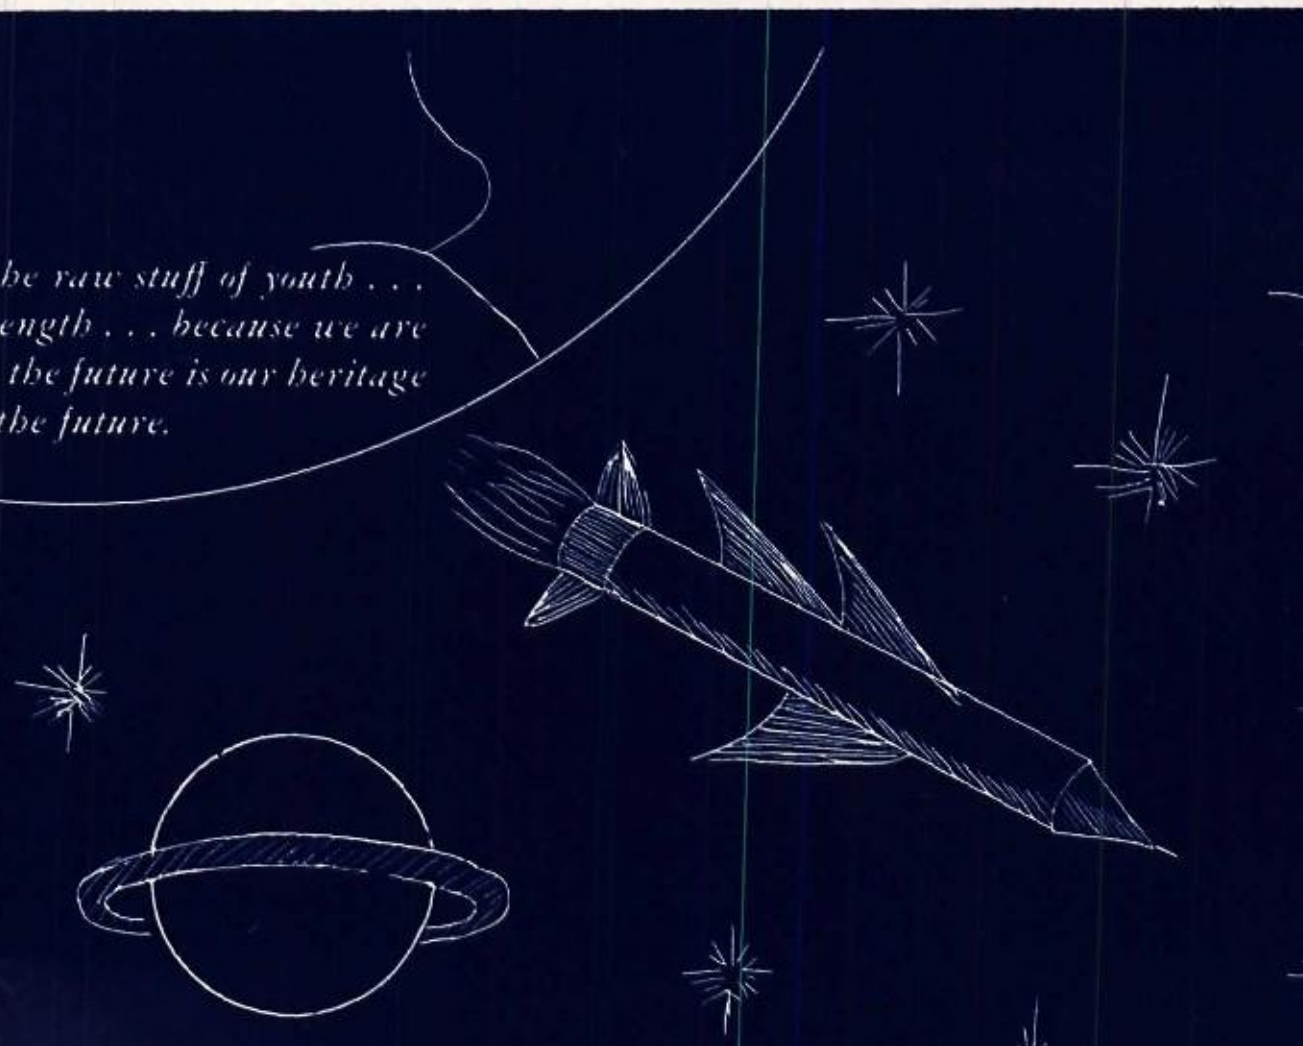
Homemaking

Will it go around or won't it? C. Formica looks worried, but F. Rybarczyk smiles confidently.

Designs très chic are being tailored by our seamstresses, J. Puţaski, M. Bartys, C. Messier, and L. Lopaka, under the watchful eye of Mrs. Mitchell.

Activities

We proffer our capabilities . . . the raw stuff of youth . . . our contribution to America's strength . . . because we are the posterity of Liberty's land . . . the future is our heritage . . . and we must be the hope of the future.



Father O'Neill smiles his appreciation as Student Council President B. O'Connor offers him a "little token" of our gratitude in thanks for the spiritual blessings of the past year.

Student Council

S. Thomas, assisted by I. La Freniere, P. Gallagher, and L. Mann, urges all to subscribe to the Catholic Union and Echo during a panel discussion sponsored by the Student Council.

This week finds G. Wozniak reading the announcements over the intercom.

Wrapping Christmas gifts for the lay teachers is a happy responsibility of B. O'Connor, S. Johnson, C. Kolaga and J. Johnson.

The Student Council was established to function as an organ through which the students might present their opinions and desires concerning the general welfare of the school. Here, ideas and suggestions are presented for the consideration of the faculty, and any problems which may arise are discussed among the representatives under the guidance of the Council's moderator. More important, perhaps, than the tangible functioning of the Student Council is the fact that, in its essence a democratic organization, the Student Council serves as an example of the democratic way of life, the life which we must be prepared to live as citizens of the United States.

Student Council Officers for 1960-1961:
B. O'Connor, President
J. Johnson, Vice President
J. Erickson, Secretary

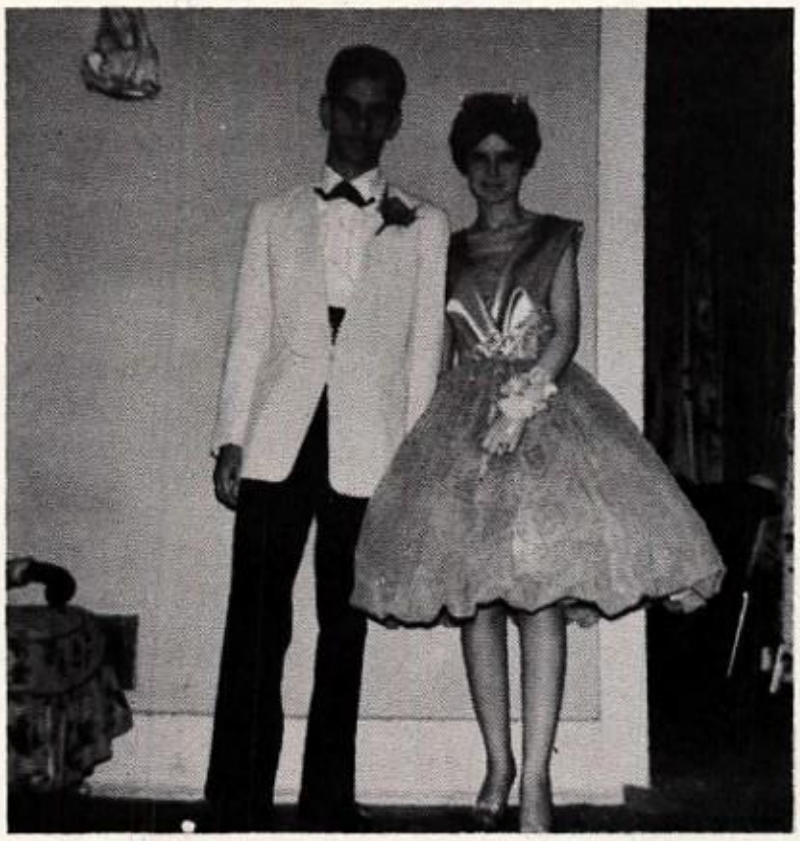
J. Guzdek presents the Student Council Banner to the representative of Room 111, K. Perlman. The banner is merited by cooperation and participation in school activities.

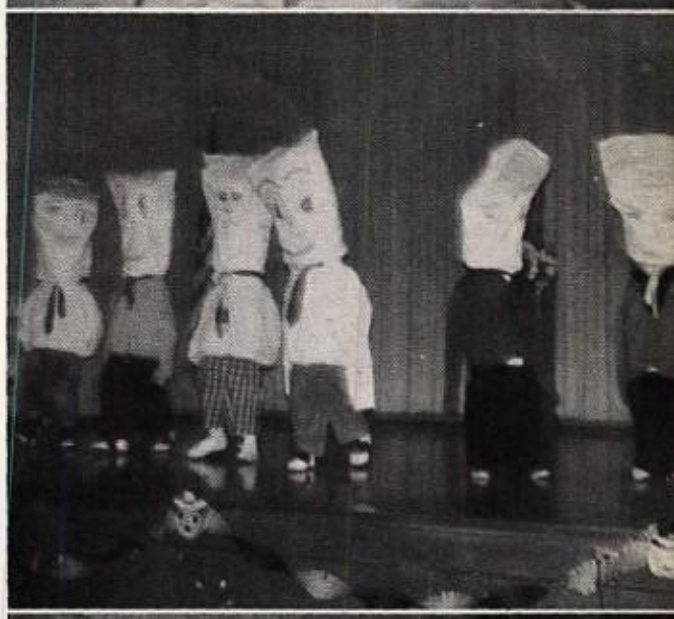
Sodality of Our Lady

America is a land dedicated to Our Lady. It is Mary's special charge to look after the needs of our country. Madonna girls who belong to the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin are being patriotic in a very practical way. Imitation of Mary's virtues, to which the Sodalist is dedicated, will bring about a stronger and happier America.

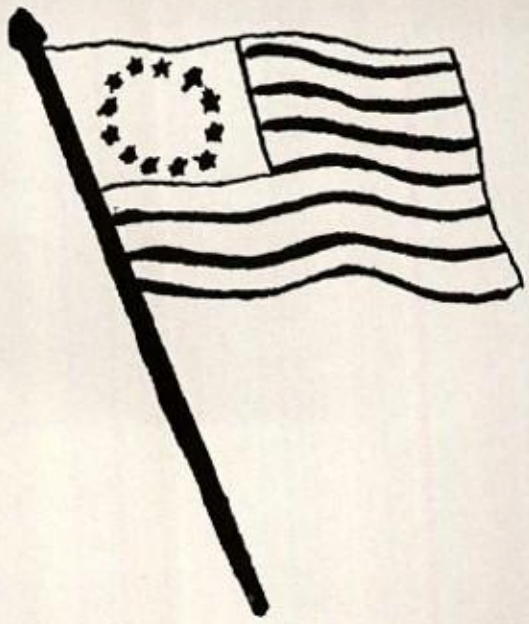
Sodality prefect, S. Johnson, kneels before Our Lady and thanks her for a successful year.

A high point of the Sodality's many activities is the annual outdoor crowning of the Blessed Mother.





STOP



The long-awaited day arrives, and Madonna juniors entertain the seniors at a gala program and buffet supper. Special guests presiding at head table are the Very Reverend Monsignor John J. Carey, the Reverend Paul Letourneau, Miss Mildred Mullen, and Miss Marjorie Weaver.

Class Day

Graduation

The Right Reverend Monsignor Paschal J. Tronolone presents hard-won diplomas to Madonna graduates.

Mass for the graduating class is celebrated by the Right Reverend Patrick J. O'Dwyer, assisted by Monsignor Carey.

Library Club Members give many hours of service to Madonna. C. Stearns is typing catalog cards, while J. Thomas is finding torn pages for A. Rountree to mend.

Mission Club President C. McCarthy, with P. McClincy and J. Thomas, are raising funds for the missions by shining the shoes of E. Sheedy, P. Schoninger, M. Nashwinter, and J. Jendraszek.

Officers S. Hansen, S. Young, C. Micale, and A. Riordan preside when plans are made for the second Annual Business Club Show, while S. Roell, I. La Freniere, J. Hajzak and M. Mills prepare publicity.
